

To whom it may concern at the FCC:

Sinclair Broadcasting's is not serving the public interest, by preempting regular programming two weeks before the Nov. 2 election to air a partisan attack on Sen. John F. Kerry by airing an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election. This is a clear example of the dangers of media consolidation.

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. We the public expect to receive more substantive news in with more balanced journalistic integrity.

Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules. They show why the license renewal process needs to involve more than a returned postcard.

Thank you for your attention to this matter,
